

WINDOW WANDERLAND

Thank you to all those who entered Window Wanderland this year. We had creative content with themes running from 'Venice' to 'Winnie the Pooh.' Top prizes for the Window and Garden Displays went to Jerry Aplin, for 'Venice,' Julie Miskin for 'Nearly There' and Chris Green for 'Snowy Night in Ipplepen.' Special mention must go to Linda Large and Kirsty Wainwright for lighting up Church Path and Kay Starling for adding a bit of sparkle to Townsend Hill. This year's Creativity Trophy goes to Barry Quick for constructing his own window for 'Rudolph's Red Nose' and the best overall trophy goes to Jerry Aplin for 'Venice' on Barnpark Close.

ARTHUR FRENCH MEMORIAL PRIZE

Pictured are the prize-winners from Ipplepen School for the annual History prize. Congratulations go to Matilda Morgan from Year 5 for the best overall prize.

AN IPPLEPEN CHILDHOOD

On hearing that several bakers in various parts of the country were helping people struggling with their energy bills by warming up their Sunday roasts I was reminded of this post from Cissie Luxton's memoirs.

'Early in my childhood. People would take their lunches to be roasted in the baker's oven on Sundays and would return after morning service to find their meal nicely cooked'

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OF YOU FROM THE IPPLEPEN HISTORY GROUP
