

CHRISTMAS QUIZ

We are getting to that time of year when Quizzes are all the rage. Not wishing to be outdone the History Group has devised its own festive puzzler. Let us see how much you know about your favourite village. It is just for fun. Answers can be found on Page.

DATES – Everybody’s favourite History topic!

1. Name the year when the primary school moved to its current location on Biltor Road.
2. In which year did the Village Hall open?
3. The year when St. Andrew’s Church was consecrated.
4. The logo at the head of all our History Group articles is the Village Pump. When was the pump placed here?
5. In which decade were the line of houses called ‘Newhayes’ built?
6. In which year did the Plough Inn finally close its doors?

WHERE? – As the landscape changes it is sometimes not clear where things once were.

7. Where in Ipplepen would you have found ‘the French Garden?’
8. Whereabouts in Ipplepen did Sir Arthur Conan Doyle stay when researching ‘The Hound of the Baskervilles?’
9. For a short period in the nineteenth century Ipplepen marble was much in demand. Where in the village would you find the quarry?
10. In medieval times there are some references to a village green in Ipplepen. Where would you have found it?

WHAT’S IN A NAME? – If you are like me, you may have a problem recalling names!

11. What was the original name of the Wellington Inn?

12. Name the famous sportsman, journalist and writer buried in the Churchyard.
13. The main road through Ipplepen can prove baffling to visitors. At various points it is referred to as Bridge Street, Foredown Road, Fore Street, but there is one other. Which one has been left out?
14. What was the name of the haberdashery shop on Bridge Street run by Joan Job?
15. Which one of the following entertainers did not open the school fete? (a) Moira Anderson, (b) Des O' Connor, (c) Danny La Rue.
16. Name the celebrated English novelist evacuated to Ipplepen as a boy who described his experiences here in one of his books.

The Ipplepen Local History Group wish all our readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.